
CONTENTS

RISS Anniversary

Russian Institute for Strategic Studies celebrated its 20th anniversary 7

To the 1150th Anniversary of Russia's statehood

Multatuli P. V., Reshetnikov L. P. Russia, Stand Up and Rise!

Russia marks 1150th anniversary of the Creation of the Russia's statehood in 2012.

This event will be widely celebrated all over Russia according to the decree the Executive Order of President D. A. Medvedev which should contribute to "further consolidation of Russian society" and popularization of Russian internal history 12

International policy

Fedortsev V. A. Eastern dimension of European neighbourhood policy: origins and evolution

The article focuses on the main unique features of the Eastern Dimension of the European neighborhood policy origins and its evolution stages.

It also reviews key reasons of the EU Eastern Partnership weakness 27

Glazova A. V. Turkish-Israeli relations: are there any prospects to overcome crisis?

The article focuses on the history and dynamics of Turkish-Israeli relations within the context of political developments in the Middle East. Special attention is paid to the cooling down of relations between the two countries and their reasons and possible political consequences 49

New Eurasia

Popov E. A., Mikhaylov S. A. Saakashvili regime policy towards the North Caucasus: a new directions of anti-Russian activities

Georgia's strategy towards the North Caucasus raises a lot of questions.

What are the reasons why the "Circassian" question has been chosen as the key issue for informational war against Russia? Why does Saakashvili regime, with active support of western propagandists, pay special attention to Adyghe radicals (despite the fact that they are few in number) and the

Olympic Games in Sochi? 63

Defense and Security

Kozin V. P. Assessing the issue of prevention of arms emplacement in space: a comparative analysis of the U.S. and Russian stances

Space can easily become an arena of confrontation, if an international law is not applied as a barrier towards its weaponization. The two leading space powers, namely, the Russian Federation and the United States of America, look differently on the resolution of this important international issue 77

Economy

Yurasova L. A. Crises and paradigm shift in Hungary economic policy

Hungary was one of the first to suffer the world economic crisis, it was forced to accept the program of structural reforms and public finance stabilization measures in order to receive international financial support. New right-of-center government, without questioning further development of the country within EU, made an attempt to implement its own economic strategy 98

Prokopenkova I. O. Modern tendencies of international cooperation development in the world aerospace industry: Chinese and Indian factors Rapid economic growth, financial and economic resources and technological potential are facilitate China and India to become the leading development centres of national aerospace industry in the region, as well as in the world, especially taking into account main tendencies, prospects and integration problems these countries have with leading aerospace corporations of the USA and Western Europe	122
History
Kretinin G. V. Assault of Königsberg in 1945: number and casualties of the fighting troops and civilians The number of German troops concentrated to defend Königsberg in April 1945, and the number of Königsberg residents trapped in the city during the assault launched by the Soviet forces demands to be revised. For the first time the data concerning combat and civilian casualties inflicted during the warfare are presented	138
Barinov I. I. Ukrainian question in Nazi Germany propaganda and policy The article discusses the principles of German occupation policy in Ukraine during the Great Patriotic War of 1941–1945. It analyses official position of Nazi Germany towards the Ukrainians and Ukrainian issue, with its origin and prerequisites	155
Religion and Politics
Bendin A. Y. The issue of formation of ethnic identity of Byelorussians in the Russian Empire (second half of the 19th – the beginning of the 20th centuries) The author analyzes the political and religious-ethnic situation that has developed in Northwest region on the eve and after the Polish revolt of 1863. Special attention is paid to the problems of ethnic modernization of the Byelorussian population	170
Reviews
Petrovskaya O. V. Ethnical communities of the North Capital: the view of historian from Poland Book review: Garczyk B. Radziecka polityka narodowościowa w latach 1917–1941 na przykładzie Piotrogradu-Leningradu / Bartłomiej Garczyk. Poznań : Wydawnictwo Poznańskie, 2011. 318 s.	186
Vassoevich A. L. On the eve of "perestroika" Book review: Ostrovsky A. V. Who brought Gorbachev into power? / A. V. Ostrovsky. M. : Eksmo : Algoritm, 2010. 544 p. (History judgment).	193
Zakharov V. M. Before we had time to look back, our sons go to war... Book review: Zhuravel V. P., Lebedev A. V. Grozny. Special area. Chronicle of actions taken by military units and units of federal troops during the counter-terrorist operation to free the capital of the Chechen Republic from illegal armed formations. December 1999 – February 2000 / Valery Zhuravel, Alexander Lebedev. M. : Novosti, 2011. 416 p. (Documentary reconstruction).	199
Edemskiy A. B. Neo-Ottomanism as a reality of modern geopolitics Book review: Танасковић Д. Неосманизам: доктрина и спољнополитичка пракса. Белград, Службени гласник-Службени гласник Српске Републике, 2010. 109 p. (Neo-Ottomanism: doctrine and foreign policy practice).	204